Article 1 This rule is to define the dormitory right, expense and regulations for student housing, also follow related national law and school regulations in case of any violation.

Article 2 Priority assignment for student housing in the National Tsing Hua University is subject to the order of precedence as follows:

A. Undergraduates

Freshmen and sophomores have priority in student housing assignment. (When the number of beds falls short, sophomores have priority to fill in vacancies according to computer draw.)

B. Graduates

Housing is assigned to seniors first, new students second. That is, seniors have priority in dormitory assignment. The Division of Student Housing will adjust the number of beds reserved for new students each year depending on various considerations.

C. Students eligible for priority housing assignment

Priority students will be assigned a vacant spot after completing their student housing application. Priority students include students with disabilities, students from low to mid-level income households (low-income certificate issued by local government must be included in the application), aboriginals, non-Taiwan students, and all core staff members of the dorms in the academic year. Those include dorm head residents of the previous academic year, students on school teams and student association members (refer to the guidelines for school team and student association members who have housing assignment priority), and grantees of public teacher education programs.

D. Priority students waiting for room vacancy

Housing priority is given to students from low-income households, students with serious illness or mobile disability or those with special condition. Those students should submit documents of proof to the Division of Student Assistance along with the application (i.e., a medical certificate issued by a public hospital).

Required documents can be downloaded from the Division of Student Assistance website, and must be signed by the student's homeroom teacher and department chair. Upon the school's permission, these students have housing priority over others on the waiting list.

E. Other Students

Undergraduate juniors and seniors and graduate students who do not have priority will be placed on the waiting list, and housing will be assigned according to computer draw. Priority students who missed the application deadline are subjected to regular wait listing procedures when application re-opens.

F. Students who suspend, withdraw or graduate from school shall move out within 7 days from completion of related procedure. Extension can be granted for formal reason by competent unit or staff relevant to student guidance and counseling affairs with signed and approved document.

Article 3 Student housing residency covers the entire academic year (based on the school schedule), and the first semester of each year starts from September 1 to January 31. The 2nd semester starts from February 1 to June 25. If you want to give up your lodging in the 2nd semester, you must submit an application by December 31 every year. The latest date for evacuation from dormitory is June 25. July 1st to August 30th for the summer vacation. People requiring summer housing must apply and pay housing fees. There will be no refund once payment is made.

Article 4 After being assigned a room number (the Division of Student Housing will draw room numbers once a year), any room change (maximum three changes a year) is subjected to application to and approval by the Division of Student Housing. The first application is free of charge, but subsequent changes will be charged 300NT per application. (There is no refund if you transfer to a dorm with a lower housing rate; the rate difference must be paid if you transfer to a dorm with a higher rate.) You cannot trade your space with other residents without approval, nor can you allow others to live in your place (including during winter vacation). Violators will be immediate evicted without refund of housing fees, and prohibited from housing application in the following year.

Article 5 Dormitory Bed Deposit, dormitory fee and refund

- A. After the announcement of the application in each semester is confirmed (candidates on the standby list will be counted from the date of announcement), applicants who wish to cancel the application will be required to complete the application to Division of Student Housing in two weeks and no need to pay for the next semester accommodation fee. Beyond the above period, the standard of "Dormitory Bed Deposit", which adopts the advanced withholding are as follows:
- a. Those who apply for cancellation of dormitory beds beyond the deadline until June 30 will deduct one-fifth of the fee according to the standard of the accommodation fees for each semester as the "Dormitory Bed Deposit".
 - b. Those who apply for cancellation of dormitory beds beyond the deadline until July 31 will deduct one-fourth of the fee according to the standard of the accommodation fees for each semester as the "Dormitory Bed Deposit".
 - c. Those who apply for cancellation of dormitory beds beyond the deadline until Aug. 31 (Next semester from Jan. 1 to Jan. 31) will deduct one-third of the fee according to the standard of the accommodation fees for each semester as the "Dormitory Bed Deposit".
- B. Lodging is available from Sep. 1. If the withdrawal is made between Sep. 1 and Sep. 30 (regardless in residence or not), three-fifth of the fee according to the standard of the accommodation fees for each semester as the "Dormitory Bed Deposit and one month's dormitory fee" will be deducted. If the withdrawal is made after Oct. 1 and before Oct. 31 (regardless in residence or not), four-fifth of the fee according to the standard of the accommodation fees for each semester as the "Dormitory Bed Deposit and two months' dormitory fee" will be deducted. No refund if withdrawal is made after Nov. 1. Same deduction standard shall be applied for next semester in compliance with the above principle. The "dormitory fee" and "Dormitory Bed Deposit" could be refunded after the Tuition Bill is paid.
- C. Short-term lodging can be applied according to personal requirement and bed allocation by Division of Student Housing. Dormitory fee shall be collected in compliance with Housing Rates by Division of Student Housing.

Article 6 Students on the waiting list must pay housing fee in full if receiving a vacancy before February 28, September 30, or July 31 of summer term. Students assigned rooms after these dates will be charged by monthly rates. (If less than a month, you will be charged for a full month). There are five months in each semester and two months in the summer term (except for those who pay daily rates). No refund for withdrawals. Students from low-income households are exempt; the school will provide free housing. If such students want to live in dorms of higher rate, they must pay the rate difference.

Article 7 Residents must pay a utensil custody fee and prepaid air conditioning fee, and check all dorm property before moving into the dorm. All dorm property must be used with care. If any dorm property is damaged due to mishandling, the resident must reimburse the costs. The utensil custody fee and balance of prepaid air conditioning fee will be refunded to your bank account registered in the Academic Information System. If the fees cannot be refunded for any reason, we will entrust the bank to write a check and mail it to your registered household address. A handling fee and postage will be deducted from the final amount. Non-deliverable refunds or insufficient funds for deduction of the handling fee and postage will be temporarily transferred to Student Housing Fund, and no further notice will be made.

Article 8 In undergraduate dorms, the ceiling lights will be turned off automatically no later than 2:00 am. The time may vary by dorm. The rule does not apply to desk lamps. To ensure safety, residents cannot use air conditioner, refrigerator, electric stove, electric cooker, electric radiator, TV, electric blanket, DVD player, or anything requiring power over than 500 Watts (including 500 Watts) in dormitories (except mobile phones, computer peripherals and hair dryers which can be used in bathrooms, and saloons only)

Article 9 It is forbidden to post advertisement of any kind on windows or in the bathrooms. All residents are responsible for keeping the dorms quiet and clean. Common areas and hallways (any area outside the room) must be cleared of personal items. Items found will be posted on the website and temporarily held by Division of Student Housing. If unclaimed after five working days, residence managers will take photos, make a list, pack and store away the items (without responsibility of custody). Items shall be disposed if unclaimed after one month. Head resident in each dormitory is in charge of storing such items during summer break. Items must be collected within one week after school starts, otherwise they will be disposed.

Article 10 Dangerous objects and illegal drugs are prohibited on the dorm premises, including fuel, arsenic, thallium, MDMA, or amphetamines. Pets are not allowed in the dorms.

Article 11 The dorm military instructor, Division of Student Assistance counselor or dorm administrator may enter and inspect your room accompanied by a head resident (or affiliated teacher or student) if deemed necessary or if there is an emergency and disorder. They will submit written inspection reports to the Office of Student Affairs. Refer to separate guidelines for dormitory inspection procedures, dormitory repair procedures and control access.
